9. L.A. COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

Activity report for January 2012 was received and discussed. The V-calm device will be moved from Eldorado Meadow to Jed Smith North, as requested at the October Public Safety Commission meeting, now that the data has been retrieved and downloaded for review by Commissioner Zane.

10. EMERGENCY SERVICES

Commissioner Ulrich has contacted all the residents on the CERT list regarding their desire to continue to serve as a CERT member and to take the upcoming CERT training class. She also asked if they still have a City issued radio, directing them to return any radio to City Hall for maintenance. Notices for the CERT classes will be put on cable TV, put in both the City's and HHCA's newsletters, posted at the gates, and placed on the City's website. Announcements will also be made at upcoming City Council meetings. Commissioner Ulrich will contact others in an attempt to obtain new members.

At least 15 people need to commit to the new CERT class starting in April or the class will be canceled. Public Safety Commissioners and CERT members need to keep track of their volunteer hours to be reported to Area B. Backpacks will need to be purchased for new CERT members, and once they complete the classes, it may be possible to provide jackets for both old and new CERT members.
